

NEIGHBORHOOD TRIVIA:

Russian naval and merchant ships frequently visited San Francisco throughout the 19th century beginning in 1806, and there are several mentions of burials of crew members in the Russian Hill cemetery in the first half of the century. The cemetery was removed, but the name remains to this day.

AN APPLE A DAY

No longer the embarrassing brother to beer, these are grown up versions of the much maligned fermented fruit juice. Most are dry and ALL are exquisite representations of the cider or peary styles.

Table with 3 columns: Beer Name, ABV, and Volume. Includes Apple Cider Dme Bordatto 'Txalaparta' 6.5% 36, Apple Cider Finnriver 'Dry Hopped' 6.5% 16, etc.

THIRST QUENCHERS

When it comes to straight-up drinkability and mouth satiny flavor, the following beers will slake any parched mouth with nary a problem.

Table with 3 columns: Beer Name, ABV, and Volume. Includes Pilsner Mahrs Brau 4.9% 14, Kolsch Drake's Blonde Ale 4.5% 7, Lager Anchor California Lager 4.9% 6, etc.

FUNKY FARMHOUSE

Natural yeast strains combined with old world beer making technique create suds that are equivalent to a wine's terroir. Lighter in color, a little funky, very bold, and always unique.

Table with 3 columns: Beer Name, ABV, and Volume. Includes Wheat Dieu Du Ciel! 'Rosee d'Hibiscus' 5.5% 12, Wheat Weihenstephaner 'Hefe Weissbier' 5.4% 8, Farmhouse Ale Hof Ten Dormaal 'Dark' 7.5% 15, etc.

SMOKE WITHOUT FIRE

A style of beer that is a must try for anyone looking for a mind bending experience. Food friendly, thought provoking, and, well, it tastes like smoke. Love it or hate it, you'll never forget your first smokey.

Table with 3 columns: Beer Name, ABV, and Volume. Includes Bock Meantime 'Smoked Bock Ltd' 6.5% 28, Porter 8 Wired 'The Big Smoke' 6.2% 18, Porter Van Viven 'Smoked Porter' 7% 13, etc.

SOUR PATCH

All the rage and rightly so, the beer for wine lovers to be sure, hitting all the right notes of acidity: tart, sour, and everywhere in between, there's never a bad choice...just be ready for different.

Table with 3 columns: Beer Name, ABV, and Volume. Includes Berliner Weisse Dr. F. Briem '1809' 5% 16, Gueuze 3 Fonteinen 'Oude Geuze' 6% 21, Wild Ale To Øl 'Fuck Art: Lets Dance!' 8.3% 30, etc.

BITTER BEER FACE...

...is a good thing. Of course if you like your beer to smell like corn and taste like water, steer clear of everything in this section, for those who like their beer to bite back—some harder than others—then read on.

Table with 3 columns: Beer Name, ABV, and Volume. Includes IPA Port Brewing 'Wipeout' 7% 14, IPA Ballast Point 'Sculpin' 7% 9, IPA Mikkeller '20' 6.8% 14, etc.

MALT BILL

One of the integral corners to the beer flavor triangle, along with yeast and hops, malt is the Chris Farley of beer ingredients: fat, sweet, and a touch out of control.

Table with 3 columns: Beer Name, ABV, and Volume. Includes English Strong Ale Adnams 'Broadside' 6.3% 14, Brown Ale Midnight Sun 'Kodiak Brown' 5% 6, Brown Ale Pretty Things 'St. Boltoph's' 5.9% 17, etc.

ASKING FOR TROUBLE

Approach just like a naked man crawling over a barbed wire fence, these beers will teach you a lesson real quick. Meant to be sipped and savored, they are served in an oversized brandy glass for your swirling pleasure.

Table with 3 columns: Beer Name, ABV, and Volume. Includes Strong Dark Ale Delerium 'Nocturnum' 8.5% 26, Quadruple St. Barnardus 'ABT 12' 10% 14, Imperial Porter De Molen 'Tsarina Esra' 11% 16, etc.
